Relief from Judgment or Order

Judge PEPPER

Before summary judgment the plaintiff and the defendants had enough time to participate in discovery time, regarding interrogatories, produce of documents, and Admission yes the plaintiff submitted medical records, showing the plaintiff did engage in suicide or attempt suicide to the courts, if the courts review exhibit submitted with motion, Mr Braithwaite's supplemental Affidavit date March 19 2018 plaintiff disagreed to the size of his injury, but testify that it was bigger than what was in the medical records submitted, nor the defendant or plaintiff demonstrate the Authenticity of the document meaning the injury of the medical records nor were there any evidence under Admission relating to the evidence.

Further more ~~interrogatories~~ under interrogatories and Admissions defendant should be determine by a second trial jury, on ground defendant's and witness Andrew Larson filed under interrogatories and Admissions that didn't engage in any self harm action on the date of the above case, date April 18, 2016. If judge read defendant's declarations, which submitting with motion exhibit one, two, three

Further more if judge read "incident report" under supervisor comments Andrew Garson who was the defendant witness, said Mr. Braithwaite did not engage in any self harm that date, but testify under oath in front of judge and the jury, that self harm did happen and that he took a picture of the Plaintiff injury that day.

If judge read exhibit that Plaintiff submit with motion, exhibit 4, 5 during the discovery phase Mr Braithwaite who Plaintiff asked the defendants and there lawyer to produce any and all photographs of Plaintiff injuries and ~~the cell~~ of the cell Plaintiff was in when he harmed himself, "defendants replied no such documents exists" <sup>exhibit 4</sup> another discovery asking the defendants to produce any and everything including video footage showing the time the Plaintiff was pulled from his cell April 18 2016

defendants replied on exhibit 5 that no such video exist

After the summary judgment motions were renewed by both parties, the judge decision was to deny both parties summary judgment further proceeding civil jury trial by fact ~~finders~~ finders who decides the evidence on the claims the trial judge set forth, before trial Plaintiff and the defendants went through motion ~~phase~~ of limine on Admissions and exclusion evidence regarding evidence including or excluded, Plaintiff first, then defendants next, and ~~at~~ another one by Plaintiff.

If judge review exhibits presented by defendants motion of limine under motion 2, the defendants moves the courts to exclude any argument, questions, testimony, or evidence about causation of Mr. Braithwaite's purported physical, mental, or emotional injury that is not directly from the date of incident.

If court see judge limine she granted that motion, at trial out of nowhere did the defendant present photo evidence that was not produce at Plaintiff request during discovery. see Admissions and production of documents exhibit 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46,
